

Young artist's work adorns calendars

FIFTEEN-year-old Lim Chi Ann won the grand prize in Anika Insurance Brokers Sdn Bhd's drawing contest organised for children from welfare homes.

Even better news for her is that her painting is displayed in the company's 2005 table-top calendars.

The calendar, featuring the best 12 drawings selected from the contest, will be distributed to Anika's clients and business associates. Every chosen piece is accompanied by a brief story on the artist.

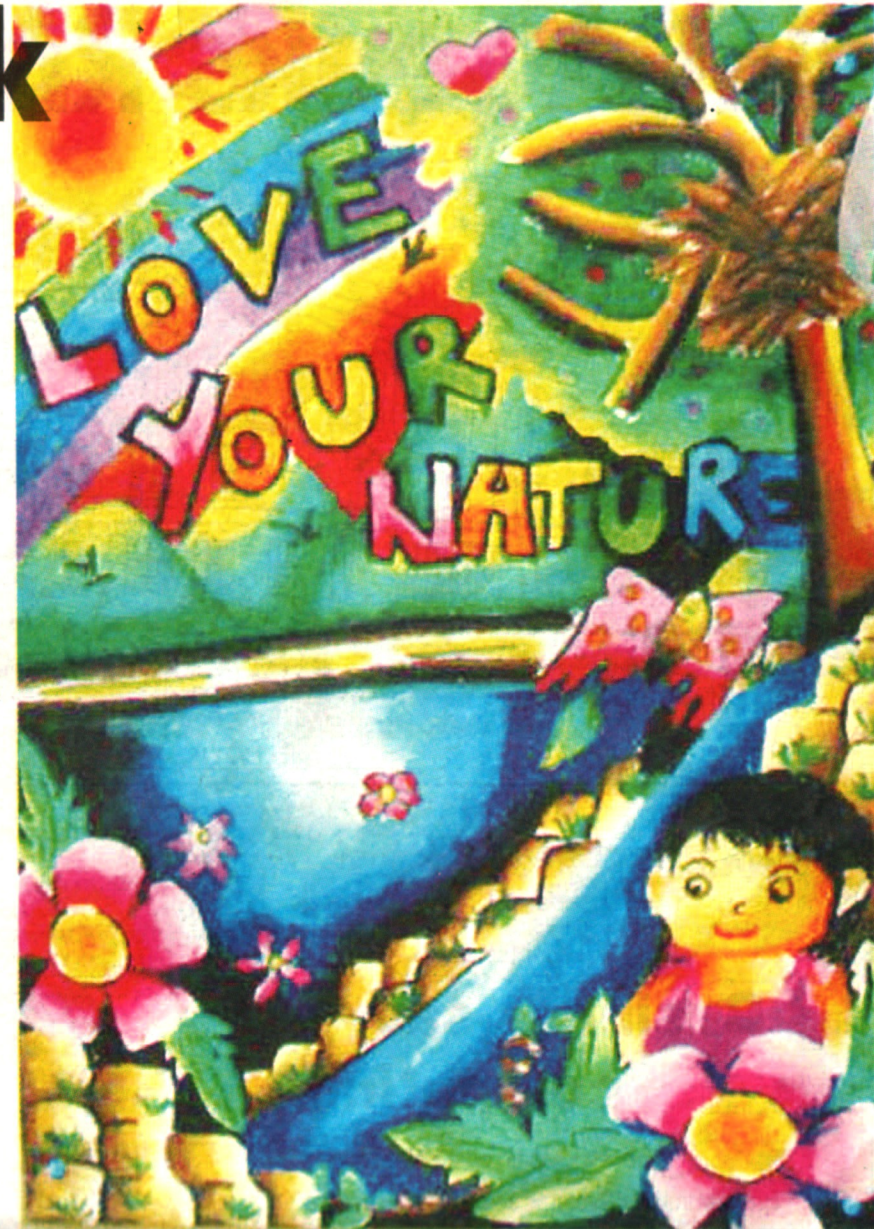

The drawing contest drew entries from eight homes, namely Rumah Kebajikan Anbu Illam, Rumah Kebajikan Karunai Illam, Stepping Stone, Desa Amal Jireh, House of Joy, Tara Bhavan Home, Asrama Anak-Anak Yatim Damai and Ti-Ratana Welfare Association.

Aside from individual prizes for the young artists, their respective homes would also win cash. House of Joy was awarded RM5,000 for the winning entry from Chi Ann. The other homes received RM1,000 each.

Anika had organised the contest with the aim of creating awareness among corporate figures on the homes' plights and needs through the distribution of the calendars.
